
Introduced by Senator Denham

February 16, 2007

An act to amend Section 19512 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horse racing.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 317, as introduced, Denham. Horse racing: official veterinarians.

Existing law requires applicants for license as a steward to pass both a written and oral exam, and sets forth qualifications for persons to be admitted to that exam.

This bill would require applicants for license as an official veterinarian to pass both a written and oral exam, and would establish qualifications for persons to be admitted to the official veterinarian exam.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 19512 of the Business and Professions
